Open Ended Questions

1. I really liked the focus on culture more than the language or literacy part of the course. I think being an advocate for adolescents has more to do with understanding them and supporting them than being able to speak in a wordy way that is filled with standards. My favorite assignments were the autobiographies I felt like these allowed me to look back on who I was as a learner and how I grew to be the person that I am today.
2. She was fair and always had something new to share with us that had to do with education be it something in the news or an article she read. I felt as if I had a voice in the class and was able to communicate my needs as a learner.
3. Work on the readings. As important as scholarly articles are I feel as if 20 pages on an idea that can be explained in 10 is a little much. All of the readings were great with connecting to what we were discussing in class I just felt that apart from

1. I loved every aspect of this class. The material is very important to me as a future teacher and Ramirez worked very hard to give us good projects timely feedback and tons of support.
2. Dr. Ramirez is a brilliant professor. I like the fact that she is an expert on our subject matter. She chooses readings and assignments that truly allow students to expand their knowledge. Dr. Ramirez also cares a great deal about each student in her class. She will help any student who asks her for help. Ramirez also provides timely feedback. She gives us due dates that she expects us to meet but in return she gives feedback as soon as she can. The feedback is not only timely but it is good and thoughtful. Dr. Ramirez is unlike some other professors because she not only expects greatness out of us as teachers but she models that greatness on a daily basis.
